

Posting Title

Assistant Coach – U17 Women’s National Team

Job Description

Duties and Responsibilities

Intention

- Improve and increasing the performance and behaviour of the players and team according to the Long-term development plan of the federation.

Main tasks

- Assisting the head coach at training session, matches and guiding the players of his appointed team.
- Participate to other activity if the management is asking for (scouting activity’s, club visits, workshops, coaching courses, coaching at future teams.)

Responsibilities

- Under the supervision of the team coach the assistant coach works independently at the training session and assists independently at matches.
- The assistant coach is responsible for the atmosphere in his team that the players can develop themselves in a natural way.
- The assistant coach is responsible for executing (or parts) of the training sessions according to the given plan or given instructions of the head coach.
- The assistant coach assists the team coach with the player’s evaluations and player follow system.
- The assistant coach is reporting the performance of the players during matches and training sessions to the head coach.

Duties

At training sessions

- Give Coaching independent at:
 - o Organization
 - o Organize and coach (part of the) training → w-up, core 1, core 2, game.
 - o Coaching the team according to the opposite team organization.
- Informs and involves players with executing the training session.
- Controls and improves the performance of the players and team.
- Give Plans and examples to the team.

At matches

- Executing the match warming up, gives the head coach the opportunity to observe the players.
- Support in administration tasks.
- Record the matches with the camera.
- Do the warming up with the substitute players during the match.
- Analyze the match with specific topics which are being given by the head coach. For example, “a player or line”.
- Supports the head coach at the team activity before the match. To guide the players. (Lunch, traveling etc.) Support the head coach in the evaluation

Guidance of players

- Stimulate sportive and fair play.
- Motivate, correct, and stimulate players in a positive way according to the JFA values.
- Informs the players what was good and what needs to improve.
- Controls safety and hygiene of the players.
- Can be a trust person for players or parents if they want to express their inconvenience about a certain topic.
- Reports to head coach

Job skills and Qualifications

Qualification

- AFC-B where the coach will follow the AFC-A during his contract period.

Experience

- 2 years as coach in a professional organization.
- As player (youth) in professional football.
- As sport instructor at school is an advantage.

Skills and knowledge

- Computer skills
- Able to give a technical example on the field.
- Leadership skills and ability to influence and make change.
- Communication skills.
- Pedagogy skills, how to deal with children.
- Basic knowledge of English.

To apply for the role at the Jordan Football Association, send your CV to Careers@jfa.com.jo, and remember to include the position name in the email subject line.

Good luck with your application!